JACKSON CLINIC JOURNAL COLLECTION NOW AT METHODIST

The Jackson Clinic library has closed, but the journal collection has been incorporated into the collection of Methodist Hospital's health science library. The journals are now available through Methodist Hospital.

JOURNAL EXCHANGE

The Newsletter will no longer publish lists of journals available, due to a shortage of both staff and funds. We will, however, continue to publish lists of journals wanted.

Dr. Arthur W. Hafner, Director of the Health Science Library of the newly established School of Medicine, University of Minnesota - Duluth, Duluth, Minnesota 55812, has requested help in acquiring backfiles of biological, dental, medical, and veterinary medicine journals, especially pre-1968 Index Medicus titles. Dr. Hafner will send a listing of their needs to anyone wishing it. UM-Duluth cannot pay for journals, but can pay shipping costs.
